Proper approach road to Hampi

3239. SHRI YADLAPALI VENKATRAO: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether inspite of UNESCO grants, HAMPI sites are not being protected properly;

(b) whether road network is in horrible conditions; and

(c) the action proposed for proper conservation with proper approach road?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI ANANTH KUMAR): (a) UNESCO has not provided any grants to the Archaeological Survey of India for the maintenance and conservation of the centrally protected monuments at Hampi. These monuments are being looked after by the Archaeological Survey of India on a continuous basis subject to the availability of funds.

(b) and (c) The network of public roads in the Hampi complex is the responsibility of the Government of Karnataka. The approach roads within the centrally protected areas are being maintained by the Archaeological Survey of India and are in a good condition.
